Reason 1. Advanced International Perspective

Your Window on the World is Advanced magazine's motto. More than an English teaching magazine, it is a rich source of information about the world today. Readers not only strengthen their English skills, but also bridge themselves to the global village by developing an international perspective.

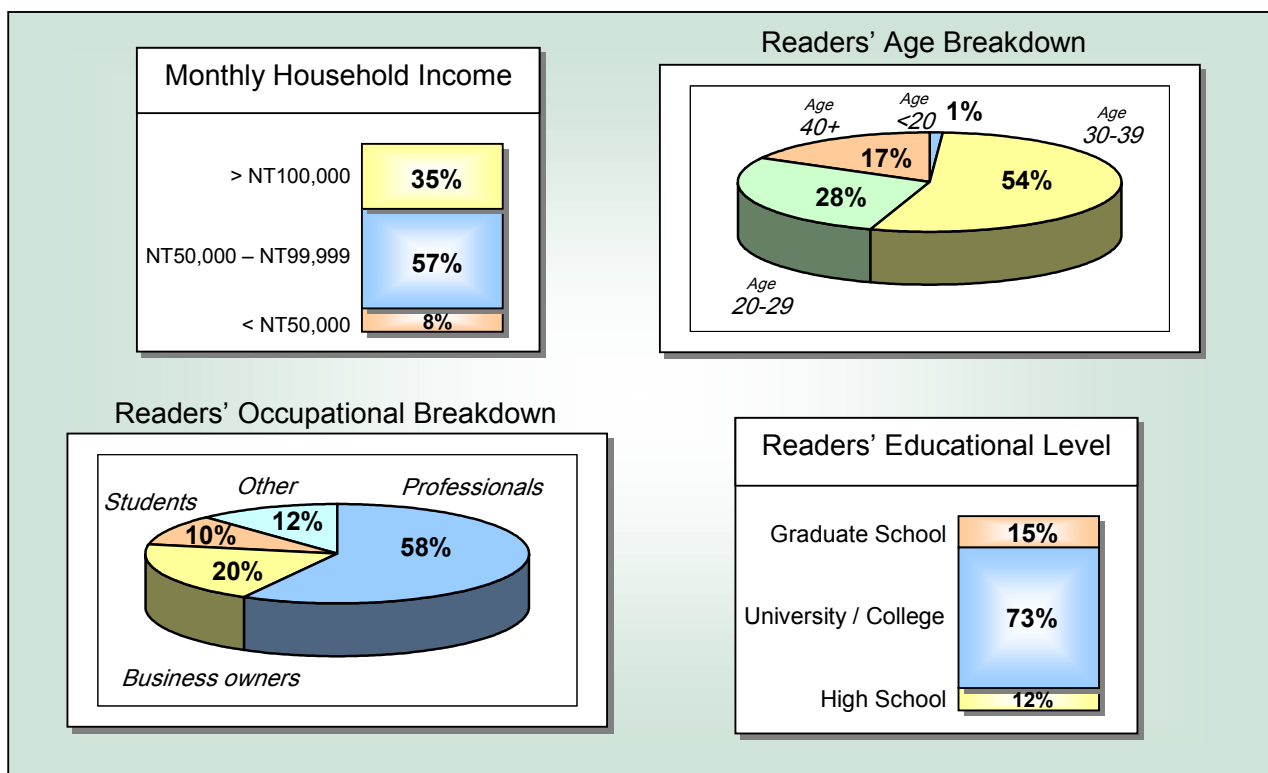

Reason 2. Circulation

Monthly circulation for Advanced magazine is approximately 80,000. The high subscriber to retail ratio provides stable sales. Being relatively new to the market, it is anticipated that Advanced will achieve continued growth in the future.

Reading Frequency Per Week

Because our content is education based, most of our readers view the magazine almost everyday. That means they are viewing your advertisements everyday!

Reason 6. Maximizing Your Message

Advertisements are limited to 15 pages in each issue. Because of this, combined with no face-to-face advertisements, your message can be conveyed more effectively.

Because our magazine serves as an educational tool, it is used differently than other magazines. Here's how:

1) It is not quickly browsed through like most magazines. Instead, readers spend considerable amount of uninterrupted time using it.

2) It is used with our other multimedia products, such as our radio shows, and interactive CD-ROM, creating stronger image building for your products.
